Education > After-School Programs > Arts & Justice

In this unique interdisciplinary program, students examine social justice issues through workshops in theater, movements, and creative writing, and present a culminating live performance.

Grades: 9-12
Location: BAM Fisher (321 Ashland Place)
Cost: FREE
Program Schedule: Jan 7—Mar 29
Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 4:30-6:30pm

How-To Apply for Arts & Justice

Application Deadline: Sat, Nov 17, 2018
Application Link: Here

- Beginning this year, all applicants will need to create an account on BAM's website and "reserve or purchase" a quantity of "1" application in order to submit a FREE online application. Applications are best completed using a desktop computer.
- Prior to beginning the application process please review and prepare to answer the questions listed below. You may answer questions in this document then copy and paste your answers into the online application.
- It is especially important to prepare answers before starting your application as applications will time out after an extended period of time.
- If your application was successful, you will receive an email confirmation. Please contact education@bam.org with any questions or issues about the online application process.

Application Questions:

- Have you participated in Arts & Justice before?
- Please tell us about your experience in the arts (prior experience not necessary.)
- What art forms do you participate in? (Painting, dance, writing, acting, etc.)
- How long have you participated in the above?
- What theater, film, or visual artists creates work you admire, and why?
- What do you hope to learn from participating in Arts & Justice?
- Is there a social justice issues you already feel strongly about? If so, tell us about it.
- Tell us about a time you made a mistake. What did you learn from that experience?
- Are you available after school on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 4:30- to 6:30pm for the program?