

DanceAfrica 2014 Bazaar

Every Memorial Day weekend, the DanceAfrica Bazaar brings a thrilling new beat to Brooklyn. It is vendors like you that make it possible for New Yorkers to enjoy this exhilarating celebration of African and diaspora culture, now in its 37th year.

Since 1977, the DanceAfrica Bazaar has grown from one parking lot to three, plus the two streets surrounding BAM. Because of construction, there will be fewer spaces available this year for the DanceAfrica Bazaar. As a result, it is critical that you complete and submit your application on time as we may not be able to accommodate all requests.

To apply, please complete and return this form along with a detailed description of the product(s) and/or service(s) you are selling, and a sample or photo of your products. If you are a food vendor please send a copy of your menu.

Please find below deadlines for submissions.

Application period opens: 3.14.2014

Application deadline: 4.7.2014

Vendors selected and notified: 4.28.2014

Any applications received after the deadline will not be accepted for review. Please remember that, because of our space limitations, we may not be able to accept all interested vendors this year.

Fees: $600 crafts, $800 food + cleaning deposit (due on your acceptance)

Vendor applications can be mailed to:

Brooklyn Academy of Music Attn.: DanceAfrica Bazaar, Peter Jay Sharp Building, 30 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11217

or email a scanned copy to: Bazaar@BAM.org

To be considered you must mail in a copy of all permits and licenses. Upon acceptance, all vendors must be able to present their Vendor's Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA) or Department of Health License (DOH) License # and Tax ID#. Food vendors are required to present their food handling certificate in with their application and a copy of the 3-day food permit.
